

Real-Time Traffic and Travel Information - Final WG Report -

Heinz Friedrichs, Robert Bosch GmbH

Chairman RTTI WG
Brussels - September 18, 2007

[Overview

- Objectives and Terms of Reference
- Deliverables
- Milestones
- Main Achievements
- Website
- Decisions
- Next Steps

[Terms of Reference (May 2006)

1. Review results / recommendations Oct. 2005
 - Improvements, obstacles, guidelines
2. Focus on road traffic related criteria, expectations, and needs
 - Perspectives of users, traffic policy, management
3. Propose a Road Map for implementation
 - Standards, availability, and quality of data
4. Propose further actions to the Commission
 - European position on RTTI, Recommendations to MS

[Deliverables

1. “Draft Recommendations” (January, 2007)
2. Presentations at Plenary / Steering Group / Working Group Meetings, eSafety Conference
3. Final Report (March, 2007)

[Milestones

- Implementation of the WG (June 2006)
- 5 meetings, numerous phone conferences
- Public consultation process (February 2007)
- Incorporation of more than 80 contributions of 22 sources into the final Report (March 2007)
- Presentation and dissemination of results at the eSafety Conference in Berlin (June 2007)
- Results being used for the Conclusions of the German Presidency on RTTI (June 2007)

[Main achievements (1)

- RTTI (re-) confirmed as
 - Being highly relevant to road safety
 - Needing improvements in quality and coverage
 - Being based on digital distribution channels with adequate capacities, using European Standards
 - Offering a variety of implementations of public and commercial services and combinations thereof (PPP)
 - Being a constituent element of improved road safety systems including e.g. C2C, C2X, eCall

[Main achievements (2)

- Revised overview on the aspects of RTTI implementations out of the perspectives of users and stakeholders
- Up-dated list of RTTI related standards and implementations of TMC in Europe and abroad
- Clarifications and examples of business models
- Road maps of evolving standards and services
- Proposals of further actions for improvements

[Website

http://www.esafetysupport.org/en/esafety_activities/esafety_working_groups/real-time_traffic_and_travel_information_rtti_.htm

giving access to:

- documents
- Minutes of Meetings
- members of the RTTI WG

[(proposed) Decisions

1. “The 8th Plenary Meeting of the eSafety Forum approves the recommendations and the report of the RTTI WG”
2. “The RTTI WG is closed”

[Next Steps (proposed)

Findings and recommended actions to be used for the implementation of RTTI by

- eSafety Forum,
- Commission,
- Member States,
- stakeholders.