

The High-Level Meeting with Industry

Brussels, 03 February 2005 • 10h00 – 13h00

Agenda

Chair : Fabio Colasanti, Director-General, DG Information Society and Media

- 10.00 – 10.45      Welcome and Opening Remarks
- Viviane Reding, Commissioner for the Information Society and Media, European Commission
Bernd Pischetsrieder, Chairman of the Board of Management of Volkswagen AG, President of ACEA
Malcolm Harbour, Member of the European Parliament
Patrick Faure, Vice President, Renault, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, ERTICO
Max Mosley, FIA President
Gerhard Zeidler, CEO and Chairman of the Board of Management DEKRA e.V.
- 10.45 – 11.15      The eSafety Forum bringing contribution to road safety – Results and Recommendations
- eSafety Forum Summary Report: The HL Meeting with Member States and Working Group results - (R. Zobel, European Commission)
  - The socio-economic benefits of eSafety: Presentation of the results of the exploratory study (S. Krüger, VDI/VDE Innovation + Technik)
  - Questions and answers
- 11.15 – 12.00      The in-vehicle emergency call
- The architecture, business and implementation plans and the eCall MoU (W. Reinhardt, ACEA, Co-chair of the eCall Driving Group)
  - The public sector: Commission actions and the situation in the Member States (F. Colasanti, European Commission)
  - Discussion and Conclusions
- 12.00 – 12.45      The eSafety Initiative: the next steps
- Next steps in the eSafety initiative (R. Zobel, European Commission)
  - Views of the Industry, Member States and other stakeholders
  - Discussion and Conclusions
- 12.45 – 13.00      FIA Foundation contributing to road safety in Europe
(D. Ward, Director General)
A.O.B.
- 13.00                Adjourn